This week we pray for...

* lasting peace as this weekend marks the 40th anniversary of the Falklands War, we pray for reconciliation in all places of conflict, remembering those parts of the world today suffering violence and unrest, especially the situation between Ukraine and Russia.

* our nation as Covid 19 restrictions are lifted but as infections remain high. We remember before God our health services, infrastructure and schools, as they struggle to maintain their workload due to staff shortages.

*those people fleeing Ukraine, that they may find a safe haven, for those people remaining behind that they will also be safe, and for a ceasefire and peace talks between Ukraine and Russia.

*our parish as we prepare for our annual meetings and seek new members to join the PCC and Churchwardens.

*families bringing their children to baptism over the coming months and for couples preparing for marriage in church.

From amongst our own fellowships, we continue to pray for those we know who need God's healing and restorative grace. May they know Christ's peace.

RIP Robert Arthur 'Ron' Kissack

Don't forget.....

Due to high Covid levels, all visiting at Noble's Hospital, Ramsey Cottage Hospital and Manannan Court is suspended for an initial period of two weeks. Exceptions may be considered on an individual basis for end-of-life care - requests should be made to the ward concerned. If you have someone in Noble's Hospital you are particularly concerned about, please speak with Canon Janice in the first instance.

*Hand-made Easter cards are available to buy in Marown Church, please do pop in, take a look and buy some.

*to donate items to our Foodbank collection boxes in Marown and St Luke's Churches. These boxes are emptied regularly, and donations taken to the main Foodbank distribution centre.

*On Manx Radio, Sunday at 9.30am 'Praise' is a half-hour programme by Judith Ley who shares inspiring stories, interesting interviews, great music and moments for quiet reflection across the Christian denominations of our island.
