This week we pray ...

* in thanksgiving for the Incarnation of Jesus, for all humanity marred by sin and redeemed through our Saviour.

*for the Church, and especially for our diocese and parish, that we may proclaim the joy and love of God.

*that we will be instruments of Christ's peace in the world offering care and healing to the hurting and broken.

*that as the Magi worshipped the baby Jesus we will worship with faith, reverence and humility.

*that as a New Year begins, peace and good will may rule in our hearts and be shown in our lives.

From amongst our own fellowships, we continue to pray for those known personally to us who need God's healing and restorative grace. May they know Christ's peace.

Don't forget.....

*Marown Church has a tradition of being a drop off point for Christmas cards amongst the congregation. These are on a table at the back of the church, please check to see if any cards are for you. If you have left cards for someone else please check that they have picked them up!

*On Manx Radio, Sunday at 9.30am 'Praise' is a half-hour programme by Judith Ley who shares inspiring stories, interesting interviews, great music and moments for quiet reflection across the Christian denominations of our island.
